Excerpt: . . . 11 there is a complex mix of laws, regulations and guidelines that have created significant jurisprudential challenges. We support penalties that are consistent with recent amendments to the Federal sentencing guidelines of the U. S. Sentencing Commission for increased penalties for cultural heritage resources. H. R. 2416 also provides that the proceeds arising from civil and criminal penalties established under the bill may be available for payment to those who provided information in investigations that lead to the civil violations or criminal convictions for which the penalties were assessed. We believe that the appropriate reward amount to be offered or paid for assistance in investigations is best determined by the agency and prosecutor based on the significance of the case and assistance provided or needed. In addition to the recommendations just mentioned we would like to work with the Subcommittee to make several minor technical improvements. This concludes my testimony and I would be happy to answer your questions. ENZI Mr. R. Thank you, Ms. Estill. I want to recognize now Mr. Parkinson for 5 minutes.
