Excerpt: .of the ancient Hindus-- Come, never mind the antiquities; we will have them another time. Let us hear your own adventures now. Well, I had just rounded this point when one of my men called out most vehemently, Look, sir, look; there is a tiger! My eyes were instantly turned in the direction towards which he pointed, and there I saw a most fearful sight. A man was tearing, springing, bounding towards the river, and a hundred yards behind him followed a large panther, pursuing him with those rapid leaps for which that animal is so famous. I instantly ordered my people to pull towards the shore, in the hope of rescuing the panting wretch who thus struggled for his life. Before we reached the bank the man had made a bound into the water, and stood immersed up to his neck. I suppose...
