In the Blink of an Eye is a fictional Christian love story for young people. It revolves around the lives of two close friends who grew up together and attended the same church school in New York City, chronicling the different paths the two friends decide to embark upon after leaving High School; the guided and misguided choices they make as they grapple with drugs, sex, alcohol, betrayal, and dealing with forgiveness in times of trouble. The story illustrates why God's way is always best and how much better life would be if we only would listen to God's divine wisdom and advice given to us through his Word, where it is clear that he plans to prosper us and not to harm us. The sins of the flesh lead only to destruction. The devil wants to destroy our souls. In a world that is declining into darkness, we urgently need to listen to the gentle voice of the Holy Spirit whose wisdom is infinite and unprecedented. For our days are short, like a flower that fades. Let God's divine Son be our light. May his light be in us to light up the souls of those who are lost.
