General Accounting Office, 1996. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)37308998 Subject: Soldiers -- Housing -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Chapter 1 Introduction housing program, the task force recommended establishment of a military housing using private housing industry DOD housing authority to manage management principles and practices. DOD has evaluated the report and has begun planning to implement some of the recommendations such as improved housing referral services. DOD did not have immediate plans to request authority to implement a military housing authority. We reviewed s military family housing program in the United States to DOD Objectives, Scope, determine whether ( 1 ) s policy of relying primarily on private housing DOD and Methodology to meet military family housing requirements is cost-effective, ( 2 ) the DOD military services are complying with this policy, and ( 3 ) s family housing policies result in equitable treatment for all military families. DOD, Air Force, Army, Navy, and Marine We performed our review at the Corps headquarters offices responsible for overseeing housing allowances and for managing military family housing. We also performed work at the Housing Revitalization Support Office; the Per Diem, Travel and DOD offices responsible for Transportation Allowance Committee; the quality of life issues, retention, and recruitment; the Air Forces Air Combat Command; the Armys Training and Doctrine Command; the Commander-in-Chief, Atlantic Fleet; and the Naval Facilities Engineering Command, Atlantic and Southwest Divisions. At each location, we interviewed responsible agency personnel and reviewed applicable policies, procedures, and documents. We obtained and analyzed detailed housing requirements and availability information from 21 Air Force, Army, Navy, and Marine Corps installations that manage government...
