They re all dog-faces, laughed the space station manager, as he waved goodnight to his security dogs and locked the gates. They re not just dogs with jobs, but detective canines with investigative sniffing careers at the space station and in outer space. At night, the space station s library is eerie, dim lighted, and in places, simply velvet-shadow dark, except for the human s dogs. They mingle with the shape-shifting immortal space dogs that prowl the space station library s corridors and live among the rows of computers. Career dogs just want to have fun traveling onboard the space shuttles as working companion dogs, never locked behind gates. These dogs don t bite. They are dogs with purpose and passion.
