Eden Falls (Paperback)

By Jane Sanderson

Little, Brown Book Group, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. An extraordinary cast of characters play out their dramas amongst the chaos of the emerging modern world . . . Jamaica 1909. Millionaire Silas Whittam is struggling to bring his dream of a luxury hotel to life. He s relieved when his sister, Eve, arrives - basking in the success of her Yorkshire pies and puddings business. But as Eve befriends the staff, secrets hidden by Silas begin to emerge. In England, the Earl and Countess of Netherwood try to hide their empty marriage, as they enjoy the whirlwind of the London season. Yet the Earl s suffragette sister, Lady Henrietta, could disgrace them all. And for new Labour MP Amos Sykes, times are tough. Especially with his wife decorating the homes of the very aristocrats he would like to see ruined.
