An emotional roller coaster of a read about a young mother who must decide whether to save her child by any means necessary--even if it means allowing her stepdaughter to die. Nina Arceneaux, a struggling single mother, has a choice to make--she s been proposed to by a millionaire, a man she doesn t love. Larry Denison offers to take her, and her eight-year-old daughter, Precious, out of their one-bedroom apartment and move them into a mansion in Monterey, California. But, there s a catch. Larry has an autistic eight-year-old daughter named Christine, and Nina isn t sure she can handle the prospect of being a stepmother to a child with special needs. But, she marries Larry anyway and quickly embraces her new lifestyle. One day, while Larry is away on a business trip, Nina takes both girls on a ride in her new SUV. The vehicle skids off of the road and into a lake. As the car is sinking in the murky water, Nina has to make the toughest decision of her life--does she save Christine or Precious? When Larry returns from his trip, Nina tells Larry what happened but fails to tell him she could have saved Christine. She s going to take her lie to her grave, but she has one major problem.someone saw the entire thing and is threatening to tell.
